

Jean-Denis Cruchet - short cut timesaver CV

1939 born Lausanne, Switzerland

During 1957 to 1961; graduate school of fine arts (“Beaux-Arts”) Geneva, CH, & study under Marino Marini - Academia di Brera, Milano, Italy

Live & work in Mexico (teach, and show sculpture and painting in Mexico).

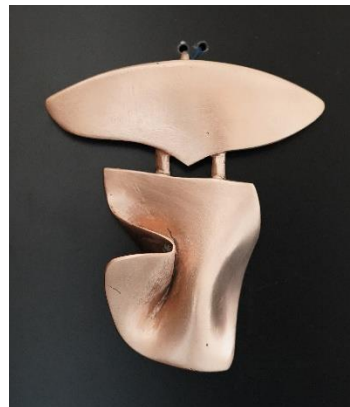

1964 One man show at Dartmouth College, Hanover, NH - first of many one man shows, including; McNay Museum - San Antonio TX, Copley Society Boston MA, St. Anselm’s College Manchester - NH, Swiss Center Foundation NY, The Dulin Museum - Knoxville TN, Orell-Fussli Gallery Zurich, Switzerland, Keene State College - Keene NH, Musee Forel - Morges, Switzerland, The Baker Museum, Naples, FL, USA

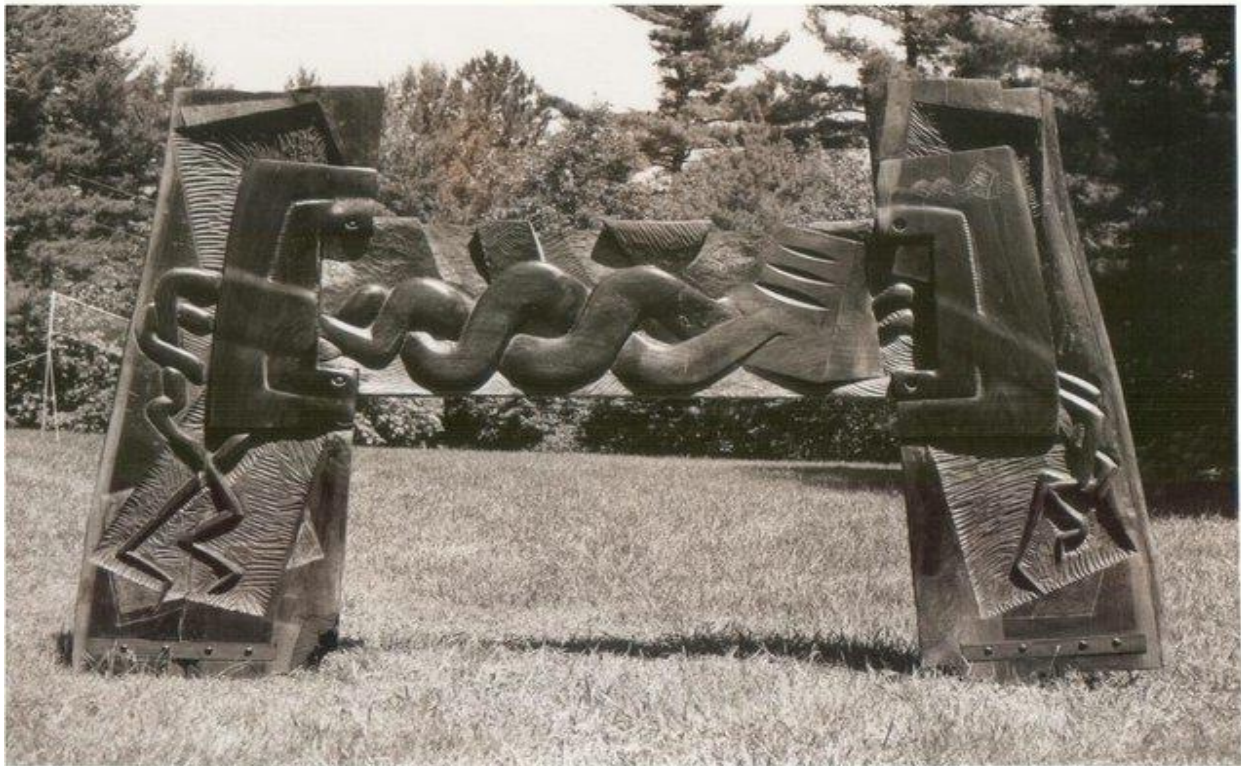

Baker Museum, Naples FL 2018

Stone and granite, bronze, wood, silver, terra cotta... are accompanied by 2 Dimensional work - in all media. A common theme often runs through a group. Large works tend toward the architectural, small pieces often lean toward gleeful freedom, and some can be worn!

“Gatekeeper” from a sequence of mahogany sculpture, Santa Fe, NM

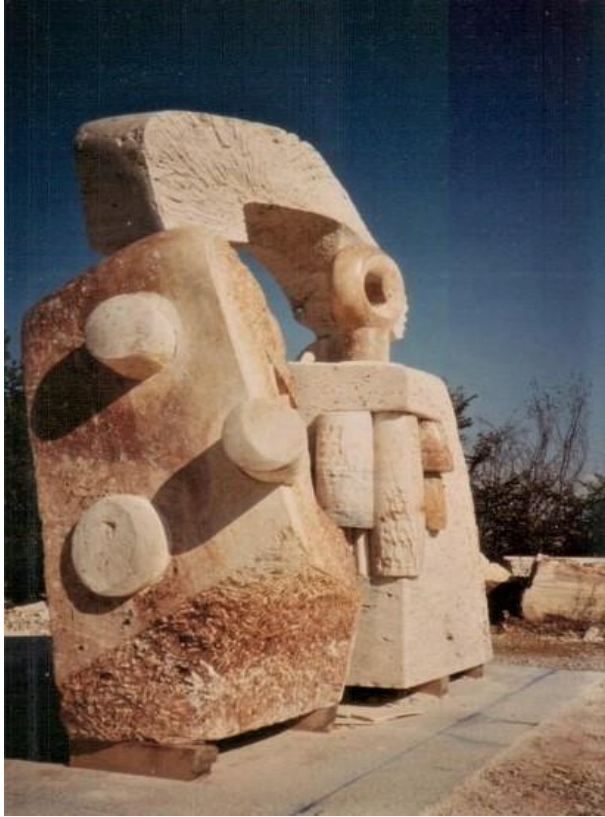

Walnut tryptic, Santa Fe

“Athador” multi-media painting

Work and show: USA, Mexico, France, Spain, &, Italy. From 1974 onward carve marble and cast bronze in Pietrasanta, Italy, as well as commissioned large scale works in travertine in the quarry of Bagno Vignoni, Val d’Orcia.

“Athador”

jdCruchet travertine carving for Keene State College, NH

“Yaxkin” jdCruchet travertine

“Heliotrope” carved by Jean-Denis Cruchet in Tuscany
South African, & Egyptian granite

Blue Brazilian granite, one of Jean-Denis' favorite materials to express his visions...

“Nereide” bronze on Cristallina marble

2015 – 2023, J-D has been working the marble and granite of Valle Maggia, Ticino, Switzerland.

“Buen Camino” Valle Maggia granite carving by jdCruchet

Detail : the strata of quartz revealed
in the stone...

“River’s Long Journey” - carved Beola granite,
inlaid & elevated
with blue granite:
sculpture/table
on marble base.

